THE POWER OF POSITIVE ATTRACTION ...

When the economy is slower than normal, you need to get more excited than ever. When sales are down, you need to be more motivated to make things happen. Are you going down with the economy, or are you committed to being one of the survivors? In these fierce market conditions you need to do more than you've done before, try new things, and kick it up a notch. It's a brand new day!

Join expert speaker Michael Jeffreys in this invigorating and thought provoking seminar that shows you exactly what you need to do, and more importantly, how you need to think, in order to thrive in today's new economy. This program on the power of positive thinking will help shift your thinking to a more positive mind set. With so much negative talk about the economy, it's sometimes difficult to focus on the positive. The challenge is that if you continue focusing on the negative, you get more negative.

Michael will guide you through a journey into the Law of Attraction, and how you can use the power of positive thinking to create positive results in your business and personal life. You'll hear amazing stories and learn practical strategies for rethinking your thinking for a more positive outlook. Whether you are already super positive, or could use a little inspiring, this session will change your life for the better. With over 20 years in the sales and success arena, Michael Jeffreys will engage and motivate you to do more, be more, list more, and sell more. Be sure to attend this powerful session.
